

I believe it is extremely important to continue restricting the number of television and radio stations that can be owned by any one entity in a given market. Not to do this will result in a consolidation of public airwaves in the hands of a few, most of whom have no direct connection to the public they serve. As it is station ownership by conglomerates is reducing choice and producing exceedingly tasteless programming.